

STEP-1

Double click on the shortcut icon of kaspersky present on desktop.

On clicking on the icon, window displayed below will open.

STEP-2

Click on the setting icon(marked with red circle) displayed on the bottom of the window.

STEP-3

On clicking on the setting icon, window displayed below will open.

STEP-4

Click on “ADDITIONAL”(marked with red rectangle). Then click on NETWORK (marked with red oval) displayed on the right side of window.

Step-5

On clicking on NETWORK, network settings window displayed below will open.

MONITORED PORTS -> Select “Monitor selected ports only”-> Click on “Select”

Step-6

On clicking on select, Network Ports window displayed below will open.

STEP-7

Select all the http and https ports and click on “Remove”.

Step-8

After removing all http and https ports, window displayed below will open.

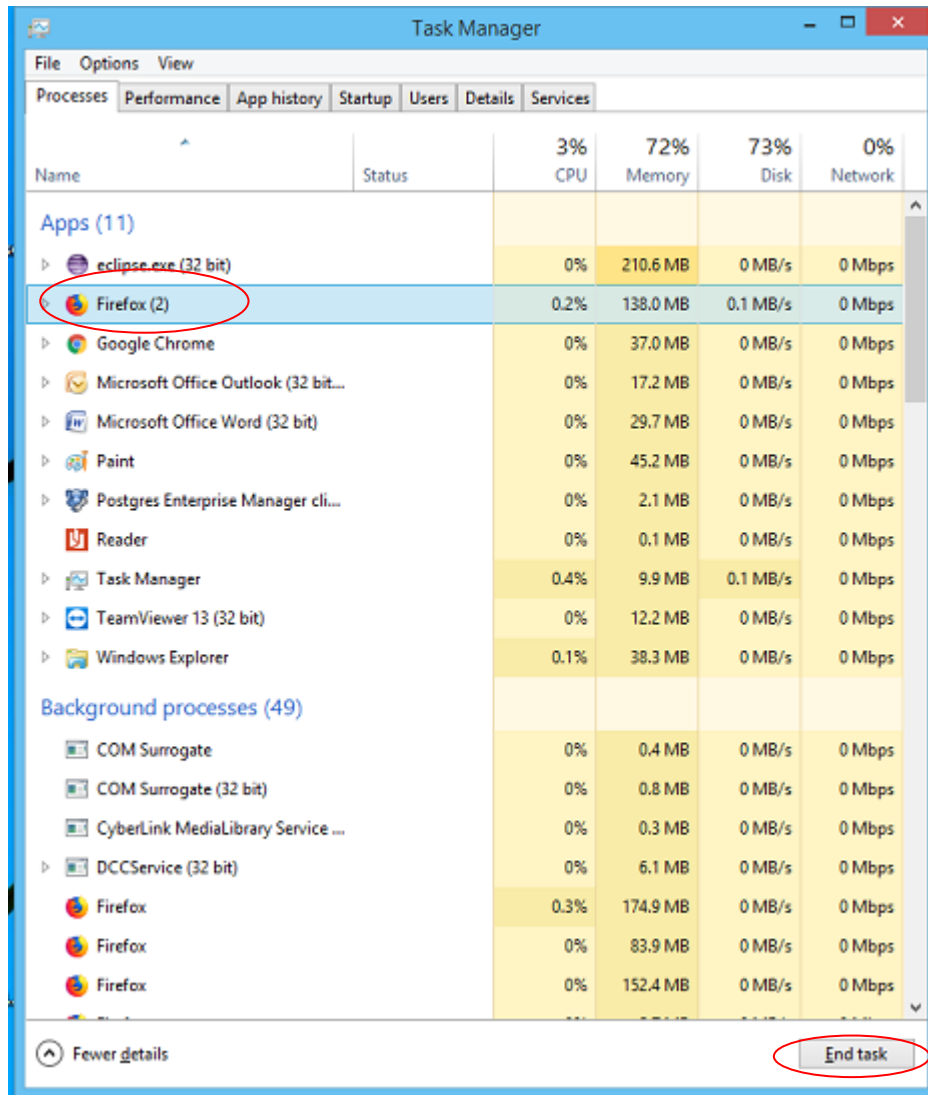

Step-9

Close “Network ports” window and then close “Network Settings” window.

Step-10

Open “Task Manager”. Select browser(Firefox/Google Chrome) and click on “End Task”.

Step-11

Reopen the browser.